

LANDSCAPES IN TIME

C H A P T E R S Y M P O S I U M 2 0 1 2

Society of Architectural Historians Landscape History Chapter Symposium, Detroit

Representing Time in Landscapes

Anita Berrizbeitia, Harvard University

Deep Time Made Visible: Charles Eliot and the Metropolitan Park System, Boston (1892-93)

Margot K. Lystra, Cornell University

Models and Scores: Interdisciplinarity and Conceptions of Time in 1960's-70's Landscape Architectural Representation

Historiography's Role

D. Fairchild Ruggles, University of Illinois

The Alhambra's Court of the Lions: From Islamic Palace to Spanish Patrimony

Stephen Whiteman, Middlebury College

From Traveling Palace to Mountain Estate: Recovering Historical Narratives in Qing Imperial Landscape Architecture

Time Travels and Mythological Landscapes

Nurit Lissovsky, Technion-Israel Institute of Technology

'Gospel Trail' in the Galilee: Journey through Time and Place

Elizabeth Kryder-Reid, Indiana University Indianapolis

Marking Time: The Perception and Representation of Time in California Mission Gardens

Landscapes, Nature, and Design in Time

Robert E. Grese, University of Michigan

Time and Change in the Landscapes of Jens Jensen

Kathleen John-Alder, Rutgers University

Processing Natural Time: Lawrence Halprin and The Sea Ranch Ecoscore

Landscapes and Perceptions of Time

Nora Wendl, Portland State University, and Michael R. Allen, Preservation Research Office, St. Louis

After Pruitt-Igode: Narratives of an Urban Forest as Cultural Resource

Janike Kampevoid Larsen, Oslo School of Architecture and Design

Geologic Presence in a 21st-Century Wilderness Garden

Moderators

Susan Herrington, President
Sonja Duempelmann, Vice President

18 APRIL 2012

9:00 to 17:00

Westin Book Cadillac Hotel
1114 Washington Blvd Detroit, MI 48226

$50 per person (including coffee and lunch)

PURCHASE TICKETS AT

<http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/199890>